Dear Dr. Craig,

My name is Alexa Hodge and I am the Coordinator of Student Support Services at the Penn State Berks campus. I am writing today because I recently participated in the 32nd Annual Robert D. Lynch Student Leadership Development Institute with nine students from my campus. The students were so moved by their conference experience that they decided to write a thank-you card for the planning committee. As the President of Pennsylvania Black Conference on Higher Education, Inc., I wanted to share the card with you and hope that you can share it with the planning committee.

I sincerely appreciate the dedication and time that is put in to a conference of that magnitude. I was consistently impressed including the registration process, keynote speakers, workshops, and networking/social activities. It truly was a wonderful experience that I believe my students will cherish. Two of them have even asked to co-present a workshop with me next year! Thank you!

Respectfully,

Alexa E. Hodge M.Ed.
